Todd Dias, Head of the Economic, Trade and Investment Section Australian Embassy

Parliaments in Indonesia and Australia have approved the Indonesia-Australia Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (IA-CEPA) and the agreement should enter into force within the next few months. IA-CEPA creates new opportunities for businesses in Australia and Indonesia to trade and invest. There is also specific programs linked to IA-CEPA to encourage more people-to-people links, including through internships and on-the-job training and skills exchanges.

The IABC and the Australian Embassy are together keen for IABC members and other Indonesian businesses to understand how to use IA-CEPA once it enters into force.

Todd Dias, Head of the Economic, Trade and Investment Section at the Australian Embassy, who was involved in the IA-CEPA negotiations, will brief IABC Members on how to take advantage of IA-CEPA and host a Q&A session.
