

Australian Government
Australian Trade Commission

Mr Leith Doody
Senior Trade Commissioner
and Minister (Commercial) to Indonesia
Australian Embassy

Leith Doody is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Member of the Australian Institute of Export; and was a Trustee of CEDA and Director on the Advisory Board of Enterprise Melbourne, the Confucius Institute, plus the Rotary Club of Melbourne; and recently appointed as Board Member of Indonesia Australia Business Council (IABC)

Leith was formerly Austrade's State Manager of Victoria/Tasmania, plus responsible for the Corporate Partnerships program nationally, Regional Director for Europe, Middle East & Africa based on Frankfurt. Leith has many years of experience in international business, advising companies on successful market entry strategies and capitalising on public and private sector relationships.

His career with Austrade has also included a posting in Auckland, where he was Consul-General and Senior Trade Commissioner for Austrade's operations in the Pacific; General Manager – Industry Development; Marketing & Promotion; and Executive Director – Corporate & Government Services, in Canberra.

Prior to joining Austrade in 1992, Leith was with the Elders IXL Group where he lived and worked in Australia, South Korea, Hong Kong, and the United Kingdom.

Leith held the honorary position of Attaché for the Australian Olympic Committee for the Seoul Olympics 1988.
