

World Food Programme

Coco Ushiyama

Representative & Country Director
WFP Indonesia

Coco Ushiyama is the Representative & Country Director of United Nations World Food Programme Indonesia (WFP) since August 2009.

Coco has 16 years of professional experience with the United Nations, primarily with the World Food Programme in various countries in Asia and Africa.

Coco also served in the United Nations Secretariat in New York as Special Assistant to two Under-Secretary-Generals and Emergency Relief Coordinators.

Prior to joining WFP, Coco worked in an investment bank in Tokyo, as well as with Kyodo News Agency and in Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP), Bangkok, Thailand on short assignments.

Coco holds a Masters degree from Institute of Development Studies (IDS), UK and a Bachelor from Sophia University, Japan.